THE GREATEST DAY

Rev. Dr. J. S. Sims, Pastor, Receives Nearly Two Hundred Persons Into Paris M. E. Church in One Day.

(Paris Kentuckian.)

"This has been the greatest day in my ministry. I have on previous occasions received as many as 100 persons into the church in one day, but today I have received nearly two hundred." These were the closing remarks Sunday night of Rev. Dr. J. S. Sims, pastor of the Paris Methodist Church, after one of the most eventful days in the history of the Paris church.

It had been previously announced that the entire time would be devoted to baptizing and receiving those who had applied for membership into the church, which was the result of the recent Tabernacle revival.

ENJOYABLE MUSICALS TOMORROW EVENING AT FOREST AVENUE SCHOOL.

Happy in the attainment of their cherished desire of securing a piano for the school, the members of the Forest Avenue Parent-Teacher Association are announcing a musicale for Friday evening from 7 to 10 o'clock, for the purpose of trying out the piano and incidentally increasing our piano fund.

It will be conducted under the personal direction of Miss Hanselman, which at once assures its success.

With the welfare of the child, the school, the community at heart, each parent and citizen should avail themselves of this three-fold opportunity—see the piano, hear the children sing, and spend a pleasant evening generally.

Let him that is glad come—"For his gayer hours we have a voice of gladness;" let him that is sad come—"that we may steal into his darker musings with a mild and healing sympathy." Come one, come all, in whatever mood, for indeed music hath charms to soothe the savage beast." Admission 5 and 10 cents.

DAM No. 33

Work Soon to Begin on Great Link in Ohio River Improvement

River Men and Contractors Here Yesterday Looking Over Site

A very enthusiastic meeting of the Ohio Valley Improvement Association was held at the Gibson Hotel in Cincinnati, Tuesday, delegates being present from all points up and down the Ohio river.

The meeting was called to order by the President and all the officers were found to be present. There were many important matters up for consideration, but the one thing which interested the Maysville delegation was the case concerning Lock and Dam No. 33, which is to be built just above this city. The Secretary reported that the necessary amount of money for the erection of the dam was available.

The Maysville delegation was composed of the following well known business men:

Messrs. R. A. Cochran, J. C. Everett, J. C. Rains, W. W. Ball, J. N. Kehoe and H. C. Sharp, headed by Mayor J. Wesley Lee and Captain C. M. Phister. C. R. Wilson and C. G. Degman represented Springfield.

A representative of Mays Bros., who are just completing Dam No. 10, gave a short and interesting talk.

There seems to be quite a great deal of interest in Dam No. 33, and yesterday a party composed of the following people came up from Cincinnati to look over the site where the dam will be built:

Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Hunter of Pittsburgh, Pa., Mr. and Mrs. S. L. May, of Steubenville, Ohio; Mr. E. P. May of New Richmond, Ohio; Mr. T. S. Shepherd of Pittsburgh and Mr. W. A. Johnson of Cincinnati.

Banker H. C. Sharp entertained the crowd at the Whitehall for luncheon and in the afternoon the entire party made a trip up the river and viewed the site where Dam No. 33 will be located. They returned to Cincinnati last night.

The dam will be started about May 1st, and will cost between $1,250,000 and $1,500,000 when completed.

The cry of everyone, as well as the members of the association, should be "A nine-foot stage from Pittsburgh to New Orleans."

Misses Nellie and Agnes Hanley are spending a few days in Cincinnati.

Yesterday in Squire Bauer's Court Thomas Brewer was fined $54.55 for threatening another person with a deadly weapon.

Dear Mr. Merze Brozgers:

Maysville, R. F. D. 2, October 31, 1914

Me and my mother was in your Bee Hive today. My mother was going to buy me a new cote and a pair of shoes, and get dubble stamps. I never saw so many people in one store. We kept waiting until it was dark, so we had to come home without no cote, no shoes and no stamps. Mother says if you will give dubble stamps again soon she will bring me down early in the morning. I hope you will do this because I want a new blew cote and a pair of button shoes and a pair of gloves. I will be 10 years old Saturday November 14. Your little friend Mary
